July 25, 2004: The SDRCC welcomes Liza Frulla and Stephen Owen as Minister of Canadian Heritage and Minister of State (Sport)

The Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) was pleased to learn of the recent appointments of Liza Frulla as Minister of Canadian Heritage and Stephen Owen as Minister of State (Sport). Under their guidance, and with their commitment and enthusiasm, Canadian amateur sport is sure to reach new heights of excellence.

We also take the opportunity to express our gratitude to their predecessors, Chalifour Scherrer and Stan Keyes, for their contribution to Canadian sport. Because of their efforts, the new ministers will now be able to lead the sport community on to further success and more innovations such as the SDRCC.

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created through federal legislation and operating at arm's length from government. It administers the ADRsportRED program, offering resource materials and links to useful Internet sites focussing on dispute resolution. Where disputes cannot be prevented, the SDRCC offers out-of-court settlement options such as mediation and arbitration.

Congratulations and thank you!
