In the Neutral Zone: June Issue Now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The June 2009 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) is now available online at www.sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.cfm. This edition revolves around the Canada Games, specifically highlighting the dispute prevention and resolution services that the SDRCC will offer for the upcoming 2009 Summer Games, as well as at future Canada Games. In addition, it presents an overview of how resolution facilitation will now form an integral part of the case management process for doping disputes.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by contacting Fredy Juni, Education and Communication Coordinator at fjuni@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
