Andrew de Lotbinière McDougall is Special Counsel to Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall. Previously a Partner with the firm and founder of its International Arbitration Group, Andrew offers clients the benefit of his substantial oral advocacy, case strategy and team management experience in large-scale, cross-border disputes around the world, with up to billions of dollars at stake.

Andrew's track record spans a broad range of sectors and types of dispute in common law and civil law, including international joint ventures, oil and gas, nuclear power, construction, mergers & acquisitions, intellectual property, defence, mining and other natural resources.

Andrew is a member of a number of major international arbitration organisations, including the International Chamber of Commerce's Institute of World Business Law, Commission on Arbitration and ADR, and Canadian and French National Committees. He is also on the Roster of Arbitrators of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, the Court of Arbitration for Sport and the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada.

A sought-after commentator, speaker, lecturer and writer on arbitration-related topics, Andrew has taught international arbitration courses at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, the University of Ottawa and the European Studies Institute of the Moscow State Institute of Foreign Relations. He has over a decade of experience in international arbitration advocacy training in several countries and is a member of the Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy's Executive Committee.
