

Thursday, October 4, 2018

SDRCC - Call for Applications for Investigators

Montréal (Québec) - Further to the recent announcement of the creation of its Investigation Unit, the SDRCC is seeking Canadian-based professionals to form part of a pool of investigation service providers, for hire by federally-funded sport organizations to investigate harassment or abuse complaints. The Investigation Unit being a pilot project, the duration of the mandate will span approximately eighteen (18) months beginning in November 2018.

The investigation service providers will be remunerated for their services in accordance with a fee structure and remuneration policies to be established by the Advisory Committee - Investigation Services, created by the SDRCC to oversee the program.

The selection process will be completed in October 2018 and successful candidates will be required to attend the mandatory orientation and training session offered on November 1, 2018 in Winnipeg, Manitoba, in order to be admitted to the SDRCC Investigation Unit.

For a summary description of the selection criteria and the application process, please consult the Call for Applications and Application Form published on the SDRCC website at the following link:
<http://www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/about-employment-opps>

Applications must be received by the SDRCC no later than 4 p.m. (EDT) on October 12, 2018. For interested investigators who are not available to attend the mandatory session of November 1, the SDRCC anticipates that a second recruitment process will take place with a deadline for applications early in 2019.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.

For more information, please contact:

Marie-Claude Asselin
Chief Executive Officer
Tel: 1-866-733-7767
Mobile: (514) 465-7339
mcasselin @ crdsc-sdrcc.ca