

Hayleigh Cudmore

Articling Student | Calgary

hayleigh.cudmore@blakes.com

Calgary: 403-260-9638

Hayleigh returns to Blakes as a 2017-2018 Articling Student after joining the Firm as a Summer Student in 2016. Hayleigh obtained her J.D. at the University of Calgary. Prior to law school, she earned her Bachelor of Arts at Cornell University. Hayleigh played four seasons for the Cornell University NCAA Division I Varsity Women's Hockey Team where she won two Ivy League Championships and made two appearances at the NCAA Frozen Four. She was named to the ECAC All-Academic all four of her collegiate seasons. Hayleigh was a member of the National Women's Hockey Team Program for six years and won a World Championship in 2010. For the past three years, Hayleigh has played professionally the Calgary Inferno of the Canadian Women's Hockey League. She was a member of the Clarkson Cup winning team in 2016. She currently serves as the team representative on the CWHLPA, as well as the co-chair of the CWHLPA.

At law school, Hayleigh was a member of the Sports and Entertainment Law Society and the law school hockey team. Outside of school, she volunteers as a youth mentor with the Start the Spark Campaign for youth mental health.