

Shu-Tai Cheng

Shu-Tai is a fully bilingual adjudicator and lawyer with considerable experience at all levels of the Canadian sport system. She is very familiar with the particularities of sport governance, risk management and dispute resolution. She was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1993 where she was awarded the Treasurer's Medal. She is a graduate of the University of Ottawa, Faculty of Common Law LL.B and, the University of Toronto, B.Sc.

Shu-Tai Cheng is a long-serving volunteer in the Canadian judo community. She has been a valued member of Judo Canada's board of directors since 2010 and currently holds the office of Women's Leadership Representative. She has also been a member of Judo Canada's Legal committee and a Legal member and Chair of Judo Ontario's Quest for Gold Committee. In 2007 she was recognized by Judo Ontario for her outstanding contribution to judo in that province. She has also served as Executive Director of Compliance, Governance and Legal Services for Scouts Canada and was an associate and partner of the Ottawa office of an international law firm.

A level 3 NCCP Competition Development Coach in judo, Shu-Tai has coached provincial and regional teams. She has also been a personal coach to national and Panamerican judo champions and medalists. As a judoka, Shu-Tai is a second degree black belt, competed at the 2007 Senior National Championships as a member of Team Ontario, and is a nationally certified kata judge.

Shu-Tai works in Ottawa, Ontario as an appeal level federal administrative tribunal adjudicator.