

Janie Soublière
Montréal, Québec, Canada.

Janie holds a Bachelors Degree in Social Sciences (Philosophy and Political Science), a Bachelors Degree in Common Law, was called to the Law Society of Upper Canada Bar in 2002 and holds a Masters Degree in International Sport Law, her thesis topic being "Respecting the athlete's rights of natural justice in disciplinary procedures under the World Anti-Doping Code". Further to working as Legal Manager at WADA she became and remains Legal Counsel and Consultant in anti-doping to international sporting federations. Her legal practice now also focuses on arbitration - sitting on numerous international and national sport dispute resolution panels including among others CAS, IAAF and the SDRCC. Janie has taught Sport Law at Carleton University, acted as athlete-agent to Canadian athletes, is an Executive Board member of the Canadian Ski Hall of Fame and is a co-founding member of WISLaw (Women in Sport Law).

Arbitration Experience

February 2018 – Court of Arbitration for Sport Anti-Doping Division
PyeongChang 2018 Winter Olympic Games

January 2008 - Current, former or ad hoc President, Chair or Member of:

- International Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)
- International Amateur Athletics Federation (IAAF) Disciplinary Tribunal
- International Biathlon Union (IBU) Court of Arbitration
- International Triathlon Union (ITU) Anti-Doping Hearing Panel
- International Biathlon Union (IBU) Anti-Doping Hearing Panel
- International Powerlifting Federation (IPF) Doping Hearing Panel
- Sport Dispute Resolution Center of Canada (SDRCC)

Education

September 2002-June 2003 LLM Masters in Law, Anglia Ruskin University,
International Sports Law Institute, Chelmsford, UK.
Masters thesis: "Respecting the athlete's rights of natural justice in disciplinary procedures under the World Anti-Doping Code".
Degree Conferred with Honors Fall 2003

February 2002- Member of the Law Society of Upper Canada,
Called to the Law Society of Upper Canada Bar

1997-2000 Bachelor of Law, Cum Laude
Common Law Français, Ottawa University

1993-1997 Bachelor of Social Sciences, Cum Laude
Degrees in Political Science and Philosophy
University of Ottawa

1994-1995 Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles California, USA. NCAA
Division 1 Tennis Scholarship

Professional experience

May 2007 –	Legal Counsel and Consultant, Anti-Doping and Sport Law International and National Sporting Federations and Sport Organizations (ISSF, IIHF, ITU, IPC, IPF, CCES, SDRCC...)
December 2008 -	Author of the “ Information Portal On Doping ” (IPOD) column in the ISSF News bi-monthly world publication.
January 2011 -	Motivational Speaker
January 2015	Vice President. Evotion Inc.
January 2011 - 2015	Vice-President. Evotion Sports Inc. Montreal, Québec Athlete representation; Marketing etc.
December 2010 - 2015	Legal Consultant, Ensign Group Inc. Montreal, Québec
October 2010	Author of “MOVE”. Inspirational and Motivational book
2009	Agent, Omada Agency, Montreal, Québec Contract Negotiation & Artist Representation television and film
2008, 2009	Lecturer, University of Carleton Law Faculty, Ottawa, Ontario Elements of Sport in Law
August 2004-May 2007	Manager, Legal and Results Management World Anti-Doping Agency, Montreal, Québec
2010, 2008 and 2003	Consulting as Anti-Doping Specialist and Lawyer Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport, Ottawa, Ontario
August – November 2003	Anti-Doping Specialist and Lawyer Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport/ CONFEJES
Summer 2003	Member and Active Participant of Canadian Task Force on Anti-Doping Sport Canada/Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport
Spring-Summer 2002-03	Lawyer, Ottawa, Ontario

Other notables

Fully bilingual in French-English; ability to communicate in Spanish Certified/former: tennis instructor, downhill ski instructor, team handball coach, spinning instructor.