These arbitrators and mediators were selected because of their expertise in arbitration, mediation and/or sport law. They received intensive training in Ottawa on March 17 and 18, 2003, in order to enhance their knowledge of the Canadian sport system and sport law issues. The training session also gave them an opportunity to talk to athletes, coaches and representatives of national sport federations, national multisport organizations and Sport Canada and this gain a full appreciation of the situation and needs of members of the Canadian sport community.

We congratulate them on their appointment!
