The February Issue of In the Neutral Zone is now Available

Montreal (Quebec) - The February 2024 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.

This edition highlights an article about the importance of harmonizing UCCMS behavioural rules across all levels of sport in Canada and outlines the challenges faced by Canadian university sport, where member institutions are not national sport organizations.

In addition to the profile of Paul Fauteux, an SDRCC neutral mediator, the newsletter introduces new employees of the SDRCC and announces upcoming events.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution. In 2022, as mandated by the Government of Canada, the SDRCC implemented the Abuse-Free Sport program to prevent and address maltreatment in sport. crdsc-sdrcc.ca
