The Summer Issue of In the Neutral Zone is now Available

Montreal (Quebec) - The Summer 2024 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.

This edition features an article that delves into the Abuse-Free Sport Registry (Registry), which recently launched at the end of March. Highly anticipated, the Registry is an important safeguarding tool available to the public and an important step in ensuring safer experiences for the full community.

The newsletter also profiles arbitrators Dana Hirsh and Ambrosia Varaschin, who are the first wave of graduates from the SDRCC's Women in Arbitration Mentorship Program. Read further to meet new personnel and take note of upcoming events.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution. In 2022, as mandated by the Government of Canada, the SDRCC implemented the Abuse-Free Sport program to prevent and address maltreatment in sport. crdsc-sdrcc.ca
